

Pogue Kate

KATE Moss is teaming up with the only person wilder than herself Shane MacGowan, 47, for a version of The Pogues' Christmas anthem Fairytale In New York.

The catwalk beauty, 31, will sing the lines performed by Kirsty MacColl, killed in a speedboat accident five years ago. Proceeds will go to the Justice For Kirsty campaign.

Picture: WEIN

Picture: SPLASH

Jude in the doghouse

WE never took Jude Law for a pushover. A terrible actor and vain poseur maybe, but not a doormat... But we've been forced to review our opinion of late as Jude - or "Streatham Dave" as we more accurately call him - desperately tries to cling on to Sienna Miller. He cheated, she cheated - at the very least they should be even. But it's Dave, 32, in the doghouse, quite literally, as he sits pooches Porgy and Bess while Sienna, 23, left, shops 'til she drops in New York.

Hello Dave, is she your wife now?

Girl not allowed

GORGEOUS Sarah Harding suffered an abrupt end to her night on the tiles when she was refused entry to London's Chinawhite club.

The Girls Aloud babe, who turned 24 last week, had been partying with her mates at Umbaba's Princess party before deciding to make a late-night stop off.

But Sarah, resplendent in corset and pearls, was caught in the crowds and turned away from old China.

An onlooker reported: "It gets really busy in the wee hours as Air Street is small and narrow. It gets congested and they just stop people coming in."

"It doesn't matter who you are. Sarah just fell foul of a busy period."

Those doormen clearly don't know their Biology.

Cisco kidder

MISCHA Barton has apparently got engaged to Cisco Adler after he got down on one knee in Hawaii.

The Whitestarr singer, 26, betrothed to Kimberly Stewart, also 26, just last year, popped the question to the 19-year-old OC star with tropical flowers.

So we'll wait for the bling before we get too excited...

Picture: DAVE BENETT

BOB JUST THE JOB FOR RACH

RACHEL Stevens showed off her slinky, new bob to a crowd of approving admirers at the after-show party for Mrs Henderson Presents. But we think Sir Ian McKellen, 66, was just being polite when he commented that the star looked like "an elfin beauty". Bless... camp as a row of pink tents and still stuck in Middle Earth. But Rach, 27, did look fab at the glitzy bash held at Floridita in London. And with her figure she could also afford to scoff those gorgeous canapés - lucky cow!

★ BAD-BOY rapper 50 Cent holds a 9mm pistol to the head of a gangland rival, and prepares to pull the trigger in a shocking scene from his new video game 50 Cent: Bulletproof.

★ Campaigners have slammed the game – out in the UK from today – for glamorising violence, as he romps around New York firing off weapons and knifing villains. But the US singer, real name Curtis Jackson, 30, insists kids can play it.

★ He said: "Just because it is rated mature doesn't mean you shouldn't buy it for your kids. Explain to them what they're playing. Everyone knows a game is a game. You press start, then you're playing a game."

★ "The person influenced by a video game can be influenced by anything. If we take away video games we have to think about other things. And then we have no entertainment because we might influence somebody who's crazy."

News in brief

ROM IS AFTER RUSSIA

CHELSEA owner Roman Abramovich is one of seven billionaire tycoons trying to take over Russia, it is claimed.

The group bought up major Russian industries at rock bottom prices and control 40% of the economy. But they are now locked in a power struggle with President Putin. The claim is made in a BBC2 show Russian Godfathers, to be screened on December 8.

FEUD: Abramovich

Hol's all we want

MILLIONS of Brits say their two-week holiday in the sun is so important they would cut down on meals out, booze, cigarettes and takeaways to pay for it.

Nearly a quarter have never missed a fortnight away in the past 10 years.

And most people class their sunshine break as a "necessity" rather than a luxury, according to a survey by First Choice Holidays.

Emma Waddell, of First Choice, said yesterday: "A two-week holiday is now a major part of people's lives."

GRIN 'N BARE IT, JEN!

KIT OFF? Ellison

BLONDE bombshell Jennifer Ellison won't rule out going nude in her future career.

The former Brookside babe confided: "Look at Sharon Stone... it worked for her. So you never know, I'd have a look at the role and maybe I would."

Jen, 22, will feature in three films and a West End play next year. But she'd love to have a crack at a saucy comedy movie, like Pretty Woman.

Families a fortune

PARENTS spend an average of £166,000 raising a child from birth until the age of 21.

And the cost, which is equivalent to £857 a month, has risen by 8% during the past year - more than three times the rate of inflation.

Bringing up British children born during 2004 could be £119 billion without including inflation, according to a survey by finance firm Liverpool Victoria.

Ian Cordwell, the group's marketing director, said: "Britain has a high cost of living and the cost of raising a child to 21 underlines this point."

SCARLETT ON 42 SOFA

SCARLETT Johansson is set to appear on hit telly show The Kumars At No 42.

The Hollywood starlet has told creator Sanjeev Bhaskar she is a massive fan.

He hopes to line up the 19-year-old for the next series. X-Men actor Hugh Jackman is also keen to appear.

Bhaskar, 41, said: "What's really flattering now is that there are A-list guests asking to come on the show."

BIG FAN: Scarlett

Streaker's escape

BUSTY barmaid Danni Adey, who streaked in front of 19,000 football fans, yesterday escaped a total match ban.

Brunette Danni, 26, bared all during a Swansea City and Yeovil game in League One - her first ever game.

She yesterday admitted running on in nothing but her knickers, but Swansea magistrates refused to bar her from every ground in the country.

The court heard she enjoyed going to the match and wanted to become a regular fan, but pledged to keep her clothes on.

Danni, of Swansea, was fined £200 plus costs.

SEE KING KONG IN NEW YORK

Win a trip to the US premiere

EVERYONE is set to go ape for King Kong! It'll be mayhem on the streets of Manhattan once more as the brilliant remake of the classic flick is released on December 15. To celebrate the hotly-anticipated release of King Kong, Pringles is offering Daily Star readers the chance to win a once-in-a-lifetime prize – two tickets to the New York premiere of this year's biggest blockbuster on December 5, as well as flights and accommodation to the city that never sleeps.

You'll get the opportunity to walk the red carpet, mingle with the stars, and see the Empire State Building for real as well as in the film. From the minute you arrive in New York you'll feel every inch the star as a limousine transfers you from JFK airport to your four-star hotel in style.

With spending money provided by Pringles, you'll be able to shop like the rich and famous as well. We've also got two fantastic runner-up prizes – two pairs of tickets to the London premiere of King Kong on December 8. We'll provide your accommodation and pay for travel costs – so all you have to do is look your best and get ready to hit the red carpet.

PLUS WE'RE GIVING AWAY TICKETS FOR LONDON FIRST NIGHT

The fun doesn't stop there. Every promotional can of Pringles bought is guaranteed to win you an amazing prize, from Toshiba DVD players to cinema tickets and Kong merchandise. The competition will be available on five Pringles 200g flavours, two Pringles 50g flavours and all Pringles Dippers. So get down to your nearest store and grab your Pringles before Kong does.

GLITTER GIVEN 4 MONTHS IN HELL-HOLE JAIL

by JAMES WICKHAM

FALLEN pop star Gary Glitter was banged up in a Vietnamese hell-hole jail yesterday.

Magistrates locked him away for four months and told the bald former glam-rock star: "Don't expect to leave any time soon."

Charges of child abuse, including having sex with an under-age girl or girls, will be formally filed today.

An official from the southern Ba Ria Vung Tau province said: "We have enough evidence to prosecute him for child abuse."

Police were authorised to detain Glitter, 61 - real name Paul Francis Gadd - for four months until his trial. He has been held since Saturday after trying to leave the country amid allegations he had committed "lewd acts with minors" at his home in Vung Tau.

Death

The prison where he is being held is a mosquito-ridden hell-hole where inmates survive on one bowl of rice a day.

It is on the site of a historic French jail where hundreds were worked and starved to death. "There's no protection from insects and infections are common," said an ex-inmate who asked not to be named. "Without contacts on the outside and money for bribes it is hard to survive."

Glitter, who denies allegations he molested girls as young as 12, was allowed to keep about £50 to buy extra food.

Lt Col. Nguyen Duc Trinh said Glitter could end up spending years in jail.

Police have obtained statements from five girls about their sexual involvement with Glitter and compiled medical evidence of potential abuse, Trinh added. Glitter was jailed for four months in Britain in 1999 for storing more than 4,000 images of child porn on his computer.

WHO legend Roger Daltrey has spilled the beans about the eagerly awaited new album.

And the pairing of Roger, 61, and guitarist Pete Townshend, 60, are looking to update Who classic My Generation.

Daltrey said: "Pete and I have been working in the studio. Old age has its own problems and it'd be great for Townshend to put those words into music."

Can't wait to hear it.

JOE MOTT'S AWARD WINNING HOT SHOT

ROBBIE Williams has set a world record for ticket sales in one day by shifting 1.6 million for his 2006 world tour. Last Saturday the phone lines went into meltdown and websites crashed due to the demand, netting the 31-year-old £80m in the process.

Fat's enough pleads Ricky

NO MORE 'PORTLY' JIBES

KAISER Chiefs frontman Ricky Wilson is going on a health drive - and it's all thanks to Hot.

Fed up with me accusing him of being "portly", Ricky, 28, has invested in a rowing machine and has vowed to give up the dreaded pies.

I caught up with the charming fella at the world premiere of the Chiefs' excellent new film Enjoyment at the Picture Palace in Southwold, Suffolk.

And it was there he told me of his life-changing plans.

He said: "I've got myself a rowing machine now. Life on the road is so unhealthy and I'm trying to get back in shape.

EXCLUSIVE

"I find it really embarrassing watching myself on the TV as I'm always checking to see if viewers can get a glimpse of my double chin."

Bored

Ricky cancelled a week of touring in Spain last week after a virus hit his road crew - and was bored silly.

He said: "This is the most time off I've had for a year. I was really bored by Monday morning, so it's nice to get out. We're off to Australia with The Foo Fighters on Friday so that will keep me busy for a few more weeks."

The Kaisers' DVD is a hilarious record of their first year on the road.

Live footage and videos are interspersed with side-splitting sketches that see everyone replaced by actors.

The band send themselves up with keyboard player Peanut, 27, replaced by a wooden puppet.

Guitarist Whitey, 32, is played by a tubby youngster and Ricky by a washed-up lounge singer.

Anyone who spots him eating pasties should take a picture and alert me. It's for his own good.

Picture: JUSTIN GOFF/CD UK

That'll do nicely...

TAKE That are reforming for a tour. Now that's me sticking my neck out, that is.

Mark Owen, 33, Jason Orange, 35, Gary Barlow, 34 and Howard Donald, 37, have called a press conference later this morning to reveal their plans.

And my sources say it's all about them hitting the road again next year.

I'm told: "They've been talking about it for ages and their recent DVD launch proved so popular that they have decided to really go for it."

It's unlikely that they will record any new music - but they will probably announce something live for 2006.

The band split 10 years ago, and only Robbie Williams has gone on to any great solo success.

And needless to say, Robbie is NOT getting involved with this reunion.

ORIGINALS: Take That with Robbie

Myleene a battler

MYLEENE Klass made sure she was warm for her impromptu MC battle at a Soho record store.

The delightful classical bird, 27, pictured here, has promised her fellow odd UK telly show presenters Johnny P and Lauren Laverne, 27, she will learn how to freestyle rap.

You'll have to get up and watch the show this Saturday morning to see how she got on.

CAUGHT LIVE

ELBOW Carling Apollo, Manchester

NO ONE ever doubted it would be a triumphant homecoming for Elbow but from the moment frontman Guy Garvey, 31, launched into the opening track, Station Approach, it was clear it was going to be a special night.

Old favourites Red and Fallen Angel were pitch-perfect while a peerless Newborn had grown men crying into their beers.

New material - the beautiful My Very Best and a triumphant encore of Forget Myself - proved Garvey is the best lyricist of his generation and probably has the greatest voice.

CAUGHT LIVE

FIGHTSTAR 93ft East, London

IT'S almost a year since Charlie Simpson pulled the plug on his pop career for the roof-raisingly loud Fightstar.

The sound's heavy-duty, make no mistake. But the guys' passion is matched by quality.

This week Fightstar sold out four consecutive gigs across London, great prep for their headliner at London's Astoria on March 22, while next year's much anticipated debut album certainly looks like being immense.

Astoria tickets are on sale now at the usual outlets.

Fiddy's scary

I'VE had an exclusive early viewing of 50 Cent's debut movie.

Get Rich Or Die Trying is Fiddy's 8 Mile, and supposedly his life story.

While his acting is as lumpy as his torso, the glimpse into his NY upbringing is fascinating, terrifying viewing.

Set to a thumping hip hop soundtrack, it has a particularly raw shower stabbing scene.

One for the DVD and a little gangsta posturing at home.

MOTT
FIVE ticket-less McFly fans were booted out of Camden's Odeon where the boyband held their DVD premiere last night. The teenyboppers had broken in 12 hours earlier. The Wonderland Tour 2005 has footage of the lads in the all together. 'Nuff said.

Garry's kiss of torment

WHAT a weepie! Albert Square gal Naomi Julien has really got the hump with amorous Garry Hobbs. Garry (Ricky Groves, 37) is thrilled when he finally gets the student in a steamy clinch. But Naomi (Petra Letang, 25) pulls away in tears. See it all on Tuesday, BBC 1.

Lads hot for Eliza

NEIGHBOURS sex bomb Eliza Taylor-Cotter is on the way to becoming Australia's No.1 soap pin-up in her role as wild child Janae Timmins. Male fans are raving about tarty Janae's skimpy outfits and promiscuous behaviour. And Eliza, 16, says she's enjoying her screen snogs with Kyal Marsh, 18, who plays Boyd Hoyland. She said: "Kyal is a great kisser."

Vera's naked fury over strip

JACK GOES NUDE

MODEL: Cheeky Jack

CORRIE'S Jack Duckworth will be torn off a strip when Vera discovers he's been posing naked for beer money.

Jack has secretly been peeling off as a £25-a-session model for a group of old dears at an amateur art class.

But wife Vera soon rumbles his saucy sideline. And she goes so ballistic when she sees his wrinkly body on display at Weatherfield art gallery that she smashes a full-frontal painting over his head.

Canny Jack (Bill Tarmey, 64) could not resist the cash offer to pose nude. But he had no idea the masterpieces would be on show for all to see.

Despite his most devious efforts, he can't stop unsuspecting Vera finding out his secret when she makes a visit to the gallery.

She wonders why café boss Roy Cropper (David Neilson, 56), nose agent Norris Cole (Malcolm Hebden, 65) and battleaxe Blanche Hunt (Maggie Jones, 69) are all suddenly tittering at a picture.

And Vera (Liz Dawn, 66) goes into orbit when a still-life student asks:

BALLISTIC: Wife Vera

EXCLUSIVE by JOHN MAHONEY

"Does your husband always fall asleep on the job?"

"When I painted him, no sooner had he taken his clothes off than he was out like a light!"

When the lady points out her portrait of Jack, furious Vera grabs it from the wall and smashes it over his head.

Damage

She drags poor Jack away by the ear with the painting still wrapped round his neck and the gallery boss demanding payment for the damage.

But Vera yells back: "It's our Jack who'll be paying for it - 'til the day he dies. Which will be a lot sooner than he thinks after this little lot!"

A Street insider said last night: "Viewers can relax if they fear they're going to see Jack in the buff."

"Although the pictures are hung everywhere in the gallery, the full-frontals will be carefully obscured by the heads of art lovers crowded around them to spare us all Jack's wrinkles and creases!"
